MAJLIS 2013: Cooperation in Kuwaiti Politics?

Presented by:
Margaret McKenzie
Researcher

This talk provides an overview of social network analysis to visualize Kuwait’s National Assembly voting patterns. It provides insight into the trends of coalitions in Majlis 2013. Specifically, this presentation explores the dynamic between the Members of Parliament by looking at sects, gender, and the five districts in Kuwait.

Margaret L. McKenzie is a researcher and certified mediator specializing in governance, environmental sustainability, and basic human rights. A former researcher at the Center for Gulf Studies, she has also worked with the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), Institute for Intergovernmental Relations, the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UNDESA), and community-based groups in Canada, Jordan, Palestine, and other areas. Margaret holds an M.A. in Law and Diplomacy from the Fletcher School, Tufts University.
