The Center for Gulf Studies at the American University of Kuwait presents a lecture entitled:

“BOYCOTT, DIVESTMENT AND SANCTIONS”
Part of the Kuwait-Palestine Series at CGS
Organized in cooperation with Kuwait Graduates Society

Omar Barghouti is an independent Palestinian researcher and human rights activist committed to upholding international law and universal human rights. He is a founding member of the Palestinian Campaign for the Academic and Cultural Boycott of Israel (PACBI) and the Palestinian Civil Society Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) movement against Israel. He holds a bachelor’s and master’s degree in electrical engineering from Columbia University, NY, and a master’s in philosophy. He is the author of, Boycott, Divestment, Sanctions (BDS): The Global Struggle for Palestinian Rights, published by Haymarket (2011). His commentaries and interviews have been featured on CNN, BBC, The Guardian, The Nation, New York Daily News, AP, Aljazeera, Huffington Post, Russia Today, Al-Ahram, As-Safir, Democracy Now!, among others.

Abdullah Al Naibari is a former member of Kuwait’s parliament and a founding member of Kuwait’s democratic platform. He holds economics degrees from the American University of Cairo and Oxford University and has been instrumental in the development of key institutions in Kuwait in the oil and finance industries, as well as in co-founding and shaping human rights organizations which have catalyzed Kuwait’s progress. Al Naibari was also heavily involved in Kuwait’s anti-Zionist stance and is well-versed in the history of Kuwait’s policies towards the state of Israel.
