The Center for Gulf Studies at the AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OF KUWAIT presents a lecture entitled:

CHRISTIANITY IN KUWAIT
HISTORICAL NOTES AND PERSONAL REFLECTIONS

BY REVEREND LEWIS R. SCUDDER III

Wednesday December 18, 2013
Auditorium, 6:00 pm

Rev. Lewis R. Scudder III was born in Kuwait in 1940 to medical missionary parents. He was educated in India (through high school), the United States (BA and BD), Lebanon (MA), and Canada (almost a PhD). He was ordained a minister of the Reformed Church in America in 1966, and has served in Lebanon, Kuwait, Bahrain, Istanbul, and Cyprus, where he has lived since 1994. Rev. Scudder served as pastor to the English Language Congregation of the National Evangelical Church in Kuwait from 1973 to 1976, and as the Middle East Council of Churches representative in the Arabian Gulf from 1980 to 1986. He is married to Nancy Graham, with whom he has three children. In this lecture, Rev. Scudder will speak about the history of Christianity in Kuwait, drawn extensively from his own experiences and deep personal history with Kuwait.
