The Center for Gulf Studies and the Department of International Relations at the AMERICAN UNIVERSITY of KUWAIT presents a lecture entitled:

“POLITICS IN THE GULF BEFORE AND AFTER THE ARAB SPRING”

Presented by:

Mary Ann Tétreault

Cox Distinguished Professor of International Affairs Emerita
Trinity University

Mary Ann Tétreault is the Cox Distinguished Professor of International Affairs Emerita at Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas. Professor Tétreault specializes in Arab Gulf affairs, with an emphasis on Kuwait. She has published extensively on democratization, social movements, gender, oil markets, war crimes, and the international political economy. Her books on Kuwait include The Kuwait Petroleum Corporation and the Economics of the New World Order (1995), and Stories of Democracy: Politics and Society in Contemporary Kuwait (2000).

DATE:
Wednesday 5th December 2012

TIME:
7:00 pm

VENUE:
Multipurpose Room