The Center for Gulf Studies at the AMERICAN UNIVERSITY of KUWAIT presents the film screening of:

“When The People Spoke”
(عندما تكلم الشعب)

Directed by:
Amer Al-Zuhair
Kuwaiti Film Director, Producer, and Cinematographer

In recognition of International Women’s Day, the Center for Gulf Studies would cordially like to invite you to a screening of the documentary “When the People Spoke” (عندما تكلم الشعب). The film documents the progression of women’s rights in Kuwait, culminating in 2005 with the popular struggle to obtain full political equality and particularly the right to vote.

The screening will be followed by an open discussion with the film director, Amer Al-Zuhair, and prominent Kuwaiti women’s rights activists who will be attending the event. The discussion will focus on the status of women’s rights campaigns in Kuwait today, especially in the context of the recent election results.
