The American University of Kuwait
Presents

Globalization and Financial Disorder - Was Global financial crisis inevitable?

Dr. Subramaniam Swamy

Thursday, May 6th, 2010
2:00 - 4:00PM
AUK - Auditorium

The Speaker: Dr. Swamy has almost five decades of scholarly association with Harvard University. He was awarded a doctorate in Economics by Harvard University based on his research with two Nobel Laureates Simon Kuznets and Paul A Samuelson. He worked as Assistant Economic Affairs Officer for the United Nations Secretariat in New York. Dr. Swamy has also jointly authored with Professor Samuelson a path breaking study on Index Number Theory. He was a Professor of Economics at the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), served on its Board of Governors and on the Council of IIT. He went on to become the Indian Minister of Commerce, Law and Justice. Dr. Swamy is a prolific writer. He is the author of ten books and is proficient in many languages including Mandarin Chinese (Guoyeu). Dr. Swamy is widely regarded as an expert on the Chinese economy and an advisor to the Chinese Government. Moreover, he is widely known for his heroic struggle against the authoritarian imposition of a state of emergency and his bold fight against terrorism in South India.

Invitation to an informal gathering with Dr. Swamy over lunch at 12h30 – 13h45 on Thursday May 6, 2010 in the Multiple-Purpose Room.